

September/October
2010 ISSUE

Our Partnership with the American-Canadian Automobile Congress and the International Suppliers Fair (IZB)

Despite the recession, the United States remains the largest economy worldwide, and continues to show signs of an impending economic upturn. Germany Trade and Invest (GTAI) is predicting the US economy to grow by 3.1 percent in 2010.

The American market presents German companies exceptional opportunities to successfully expand and position their businesses abroad. The US's automotive sector is one of its most significant industries, at the center of which are the Midwestern and the Southeastern states. The German American Chambers of Commerce (GACC) assume an important role in the market entry of German companies by facilitating networking opportunities to assist German investors and exporters in finding the right contacts, introducing them to potential American customers to further negotiations and assisting them develop their activities in the US market strategically to ensure their company's success and longevity. Additionally, contact to research institutes and associations has an especially critical function when entering the US market.

Interested companies can get in touch with the German American Chambers of Commerce at American-Canadian Automobile Congress, as well as at the International Suppliers Fair (IZB) for an initial meeting. In collaboration with GTAI, the GACC will host a booth at both events. Kristian Wolf, CEO and President of the GACC South, will present "Opportunities in the US Market for German Companies" at the congress. To learn more about GTAI's Connecting Car Competence, please click here.

Our Partnership with the American-Canadian Automobile Congress and the International Suppliers Fair (IZB)

Our various services include

Consulting

Our customized consulting services include a wide range of integrative options, from detailed market studies to business correspondence services to potential partners and tradeshow preparations.

Publications

We provide publications on a variety of topics concerning doing business in Germany and the United States. Further more you have the possibility to advertise with us.

Membership

Get information about the advantages of a membership, how to become a member and visit our Online Membership Directory. This page also holds information about our YEC Committee.

Events

We regularly organize social events, seminars and conferences for our members and the public.

